background

With the design I try to revive the tradition of European flower painting, at the time of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu (1689-1762).

The clients of the flower painters were inspired to use the language of flowers to make a social or private statement, to preserve memories, but also to pass on their values to the next generation.

The result is 3 directions with different themes-
on the theme LOVE STORIES-painted with the language of roses.

WHY ROSES

It began

in my earliest childhood! My loophole, the only moment when I could really be alone with my mother (6 children, self. fashion designer) was a walk with her in her rose garden.

JUST THE 2 OF US ALONE.
ROSES MEAN FOR ME SINCE THEN GREAT CLOSENESS, DEEPEST TRUST AND ABSOLUTE INTIMITY.

why do I paint Roses?

2018

my husband and I were looking for a strong symbol for our years together....

It should show our most important moments that we want to remember
often. We have searched for a long time - but

our symbol
was not
to find

in the industrial world of products....

so I painted our love symbol -
with the language
of the roses.....

The gesture of generous waste,

THIS IS US

the luxury of giving to a person...
Look at the symbol of the most
most important community in your life.

Giving the roses a familiar environment-.

Water, the element to which we all
belong,

that is the basis for THIS IS US.

The roses stand without competition -
the eye of the beholder belongs only to their
shapes, colors, structures,
the space in the spaces
...the difference of each rose and the individual roses to each other, and yet they form a unit.....

It is the diversity of
the community
that makes us strong
and grows us.
(FOR LOVERS, FAMILY &
BEST FRIENDS).

The gesture of generous waste,

ROSARIUM

With Rosarium comes the memory of whispered words, unforgettable moments-accessible only to initiates!

When we give roses as a gift, we also give their symbolism. The heart-shaped leaves represent love and trust, and the thorns remind us that in love you are not always on roses.

Bring back your summer night.
Give the gift of
wonderful memories-
no one is too old for
that!

BEST FRIENDS).

the new romantic

The gesture of generous waste,

LOVE & ROSES

Do you know the feeling?
Sometimes we give away our wildly beating tender heart -
with a rose!

Roses strengthen tender
bonds, memories of past moments with a certain person. It is often easier to speak through the flower
than to stammer an apology.

But- why do we actually care what the
rose means ,
let your rebellious "I"
have it say....
